The Summer Edition by Dergatcheff

DERGATCHEFF
FINANCIAL & REAL ESTATE ADVISORY

Dear Friends,

At Dergatcheff we continue our tradition and value finance and real estate which lately has been evolving with interest. We also like to share the love we have for our city and the lifestyle it offers. Geneva has its own way of bringing change, yet at the same time manages to keep this feeling of authenticity.

As the summer 2016 takes its time to step in, we are very happy to send our latest newsletter. This season we are ready to enjoy all the new restaurants that opened in Geneva. Meat lovers will find happiness at Chez Philippe and those who fancy gourmet cuisine at any occasion can already take a seat at La Bottega. Not only their food is delicious... they also bring in guest Chefs for special themed evenings.

Walk around, discover new coffee shops or alternative shops. Have a drink at one of our famous rooftops or simply take a bike for a ride. Style and quality is what we appreciate the most. We wish you a beautiful summer and hope to see you soon at our of the happenings of the season. We'll definitely be present at the Jaeger Polo Master if you would like to join.

FÊTE DE LA MUSIQUE June 17th - June 19th

The Geneva Music festival takes place once again gathers all the music lovers of the city and has its main meeting point at the Park des Bastions (Place de Neuve). It's this precious time of the year when pianos can be found sitting around the city for artists, musicians, or music lovers to stop and share their talents. When the weather is good, the Music festival is an enchanting weekend to be in town. Music is found in every corner and one has the opportunity to just stop and listen. Victoria Hall has free concerts and the conservatory has its doors wide open.

THEATRE DE L'ORANGERIE opens June 21st

The mini theatre at the top of the Parc La Grange is pretty much a gem in this city. A small independent building surrounded by trees where sometimes performers open up its walls only to give the sensation of a half indoor/ half outdoor play, which will give a new perspective to your usual theatre experience. Not to mention the garden lounge just next to it, which is the perfect spot for a light dinner and/or an aperitif before and/or after the play.

CULLY CLASSIQUE / LAVAUX CLASSIC June 24th - July 3rd

A festival that combines high artistic standards, artist and public particular bonding within an exceptional landscape. The concert is quite simple and simultaneously adds a dynamic vibe: offer over 100 events around a specific theme around the region. Paid concerts, free concerts by the lake, activities, meetings, events for kids... you will find something for every taste of classical music.

The legendary quartet Borodine will open the 13th edition of the festival this year!

VERBIER FESTIVAL July 22nd - August 7th

The Verbier Festival has established itself as being the leader in identifying, encouraging and nurturing tomorrow's exceptional solo performers. Created in 1994 the Festival has become a legend and a tradition right at the heart of the Swiss Alps. Martin Engstroem's festival inspiration has taught the public that the simplicity of the scenery is a great place to let the majesty of music happen. The combination of young, passionate musicians and great artists is always offering an outcome beyond expectations. This year we expect a radiant opening night with violin legend Kyung Wha Chung! After a long absence from the festival, she returns to perform with Charles Dutoit, with whom she recorded many of her seminal Decca releases.

FRANKENSTEIN: CREATION OF DARKNESS
May 13th - October 9th

As a tribute to Mary Shelley and her famous book Frankenstein that celebrates this summer its 200th Anniversary, the Bodmer Museum has put together an exhibition called Frankenstein: Creation of Darkness. In 1816, at the Villa Diadati (the residence of Lord Byron), Mary Shelley found inspiration to write the world famous fiction. The exhibition recreates the beginnings of the novel featuring the different printed forms but also a manuscript and paintings/engravings that evoke the world of 1816. The book's main themes: Science and society have evolved through the years, yet they have kept their controversial spirit.

CINE TRANSAT
July 14th - August 21st

Ciné transat is a summer theatre right on the lake. It opens this year from July 14th to August 21st it has the reputation to be the definition of a chill-out evening, where you gather in front of the screen at the Perle du Lac either on a lounge chair or on a blanket and enjoy an old movie. They usually have theme evenings and everybody finds something they like. The view is fantastic and it has a picnic feeling to it.

It's a different kind of night out... very very casual.

Eating out

LA BOTTEGA

Chef Paulo Airaudo and chef Francesco Gasbarro have succeeded in their new challenge! La Bottega, opened its doors a few months ago in a modern yet suitable for business venue. The cuisine is inspired by Italian tradition, has a contemporary approach and refined flavors. You have the choice between the business lunch menu

(3 dishes), the inferno (5 dishes) and the paradiso (7 dishes). The food is delicious and has a high sense of aesthetics that only completes the experience.

Rue de la Corraterie 21, 1204 Genève
022 736 10 00
www.labottegatrattoria.com

CHEZ PHILIPPE

Meat lovers, this fairly new restaurant was made for you! An authentic grill house right in the center of Geneva. T-bone steaks, ribs, Tomahawk steaks are perfectly grilled/cooked to satisfy the most demanding guests. Their extensive wine list: rare vintages or firm favorites all the selection is fashionably displayed in a design cellar you can walk through and choose your wine yourself. The bar downstairs is also great for after work drinks or apéritif.

Do not forget to try their chocolate mousse... it's so so good.

CAFÉ SLATKINE (CAFÉ LITTÉRAIRE)

A Bookstore... no, a coffee shop... no wait, a bookstore.... or a coffee shop?

Café Slatkine, as its name suggests is the café littéraire of the famous publishing company Slatkine. A small, cozy place in the old town, separated in two rooms. The first is your typical café with plenty of new books on the shelves available for purchase. In the back, and under the very "vieille ville" design, little tables give you a more private feeling that allows you to chat or work at ease (free wifi). The bookcase at the end is full with books you can either borrow or exchange.

We needed a place like this in Geneva.

Rue des Chaudronniers 5, 1204 Genève
022 310 04 76

NONA GINA

The famous Fruttiger family opened a new Italian restaurant just between the old town and Champel. Nona Gina offers breakfast in the morning and a homemade Italian cuisine for lunch and in the evening. Their big terrace makes it a perfect place for a city lunch and allows you to escape for a moment from the street noise.

Chemin Malombré 5, 1206 Genève
022 346 68 89

LE SÉNAT

Like a phoenix, Le Sénat is going through a nice rebirth. It's the latest spot for business lunch, with its small terrace and the newly designed interior. You still feel it was once a place to be seen and there's a vibe of classicism in the air.

Lately we seem to see activity for the after-work apéritif as well.

Rue Emile-Yung 1, 1205 Genève
022 346 58 10
www.lesenat.ch

STREET GOURMET

If you feel like having a bite of gourmet casual yet healthy food, then Street Gourmet is your place. The trilogy of marinated burgers is a delight, and the morning brioche embedding an egg broiled for almost an hour at 61 degrees just make you feel ready to start the day in the most dynamic manner. Their soups always have this touch, an element that brings an interesting savior.

Definitely a place to go for a quick lunch as you need to squeeze in between the barstools in order to find a spot to eat. In the summer though, the tables on the street side offer a quite entertaining ambiance.

TRIBU

The Geneva based magazine Tribu opened a couple of months ago a fashion shop in the old town. A place that follows the philosophy of the magazine and contributes to the city's changing vibe. A mix of art/culture/fashion/design combined in a very interesting and up-and-coming way make it a nice place to go.

We love both the magazine and the shop.

SMILE

A small boutique in the middle of Florissant. You will find alternative international designers and fashion advise for a perfect look. Probably the only place in Geneva that have Ancient Greek Sandals which are very popular among international actors and usually available at Harrods, or Saks 5th Avenue. Tohum designs jewelry are also present; the turkish designer Verda Alaton offers unique and delicate designs made with stones found in the four corners of the world.

Keep smiling... you'll certainly find something cool there.

CLUBBING

LE 5 LOUNGE SWISSOTEL METROPOLE

One of the most attractive Terraces of the city. The rooftop of the Swissotel offer a panoramic view of the lake and excellent cocktails from professional bartenders.

After work drinks can be followed by light dinner. Their tartares are a delight and the setting in the back is very romantic for those who would like to go there for a date or to celebrate a special event. Open on sunday afternoons... the best place to chill in style and elegance.

Le 5 opens at 14:00 on the weekends, because nothing is better than a rooftop on a sunny sunday!

5@swissotel.com or 022.318.3355

LES VOILES

It has now become an iconic venue in geneva... Les Voiles promise the most un-Geneva summer evenings and at the same time it is actually a very geneva style setting as it is located on the lake geneva. When you enter the place, you get the feeling you are somewhere in the south of france or on a greek island... and yet you are in geneva. Light dishes offer summer flavors to match your drinks and of course the sunsets are memorable.

Either you just would like to chill out late afternoon feet in the sand; or have fancy drinks in the evenings, les Voiles are definitely the place to be.

www.les-voiles.ch

ROOFTOP 42

A rooftop in the middle of the town and yet a beautiful view of the lake. This funky bar/restaurant keeps its vibes high during the summer with the beautiful terrace that opens when the sunshine come out. nice music, nice food, nice people... what else can you ask for?

LES SAMEDIS DU VÉLO

One saturday a month, the city of geneva organizes special bicycle events for all. This summer you can join the Modern art tour or Medieval Geneva tour or Biodiversity in action on July 2nd; Cocktail of 2 urban gardens tour, the Grimm brothers tours for kids, or the Namasté tour (indian litterature) on August 6th; And finally you have the choice among the Musical tour, the Japanese litterature tour, or XX century tour on September 3rd.

It's a great way to rediscover the city and we love it!

www.samedisduvelo.ch

LE JARDIN D'IRIS

A Chateau, a garden and one very passionate couple behind it: John and Rachel Rutledge know how to make a garden! It is impressive how many different kinds of iris' this place can offer. Colors that make your sunday walk enjoyanble and in simple words happy. Outdoor art exhibitions find their way between the flowers and a wonderful fairy tale happens in the woods.

With or without kids, it's a place to add to your list!

ACCRO BRANCHE

Hanging from a tree has never been so entertaining! Take a small journey on the trees... yes yes... you read correctly... on the trees. Acro-branche allows you to go from one tree to another at more than a few feet from the ground. A team building activity perfect for the entire family or just for friends who would like to do something different. Surrounded by beautiful swiss nature, this day in the trees asks for lots of courage and daring.

The sense of freedom and achievement is definitely worth the adrenaline rush.
